MATTHEW 28

Jesus Rises From the Dead

Before Jesus died, he said he would rise from the dead on the third day. So that no one could steal the body of Jesus and then say that he had risen, soldiers guarded the tomb all day and night.

Mary and another women visit Jesus' tomb.

Early Sunday morning, Mary Magdalene and another woman named Mary went to visit Jesus' tomb. Suddenly there was a great trembling of the earth like an earthquake. An angel appeared and rolled away the huge stone that was in front of the tomb. The guards were so scared that they froze!

Mary Magdalene and Mary watched as the angel showed them the tomb. The angel was dressed in a shining robe that was as white as snow. The angel said, “Do not be afraid. I know you are looking for Jesus the crucified. He is not here. He is risen just as he said. “

The women looked in and saw that the tomb was indeed empty. How full of joy they were! They went quickly to tell Peter and all of Jesus' friends. Jesus met them on the way and greeted them.
