

2021 Summer Reading Assignment:

Rising 6th:

Read Inkheart by Cornelia Funke

Rising 7th:

1. Read The Wednesday Wars by Gary Schmidt
2. Returning Students Only: Precept Project Extra Credit (points added to your summer reading test)→ Reread the precepts generated by Mr. Browne’s students at the back of the novel, Wonder. (Precepts are directions given as rules of action or conduct.)
  - a. Think about a message that you would choose to act on as your own personal precept. You must create your own personal precept to live by for the 2021-22 school year or borrow a quotation, song lyric, poem verse, etc. from someone else (as long as you give them credit for their work).
  - b. Although you may borrow an idea or quotation from another source, you may not use one of the precepts included in the novel.
  - c. Your precept about your beliefs and/or values should be: global, inspirational and/or motivational, and attributed to its source (you or another author).
  - d. You can design your postcard on the computer, buy one and write your precept on, or draw it yourself. Make sure you write a note explaining why you think the precept is an important rule to live by!
  - e. Once you have created your own precept to live by, write it on a postcard and mail it to: Mrs. Jordan, 830 West Broad St., Falls Church, VA 22046

| Dear Mrs. Jordan,I think that "Your deeds are your monuments" is an important rule to live by. Monuments are left behind as a reminder of something or someone; they are what people are remembered for.Your deeds are your actions and accomplishments. I know that what I do in life is what I will be remembered for. When I think about that, I am inspired to do better and be better so that my monument is one I can be proud of!Sincerely,Student name | STAMP Mrs. Jordan830 West Broad StreetFalls Church, VA 22046 |

Rising 8th:

1. Read Summer of My German Soldier by Bette Greene
2. Returning SJS Students Only Extra Credit on your Summer Reading Test: Annotate the text and Complete 3 Dialectical Journal Entries (total). See template below. You may complete these digitally and email them to me (ajordan@saintjameschool.org)

Instructions: While we read, use the following template to keep a dialectical journal. Annotate the text. Use your annotation to identify the specific responses that you experience. Record those responses below and prepare to turn in on Schoology on the first day of school. Don't forget to add your page numbers after your passages and codes before your responses.
